-24:00H to 47:59H

You can claim goods worth up to two hundred Canadian dollars. Tobacco products and alcoholic beverages are not included in this exemption. If the value of the goods you are bringing back exceeds two hundred Canadian dollars, you cannot claim this exemption. Instead, duty and taxes are applicable on the entire amount of the imported goods. Goods must be in your possession and reported at time of entry to Canada. A minimum absence of twenty-four hours from Canada is required. For example, if you left at seven PM on Friday the fifteenth, you may return no earlier than seven PM on Saturday the sixteenth to claim the exemption.
